Agency Moves into Bigger and Better Offices

SUGAR LAND, TX, (January 25, 2008) — Freed moved into beautiful modern new offices after 8 years at the previous address. Moving the HQ 300 yards to the East, in the building next door, Freed has taken over most of the top floor at 1650 Highway 6 South.

The offices provide an incredible view onto the lake and green space behind the building. Fabulous glass walls enclose all offices which enhance the view and provide for incredible natural lighting. The offices boast all the most modern conveniences, including a number of flat panel plasma screens, the latest in computer and internet technology, and a specialized area for the award-winning creative team.

The offices were well-planned and decorated to the hilt. New furniture, concrete floors, faux zebra-wood walls, and ebony 20 foot conference table all add to the ambience of this imaginative workspace. To top it all off, Freed had a custom cantina designed and built within the agency. A full-working cantina, named "Papa Libre's" (FreeDad in English), comes complete with antique arcade games, a nickel Coke machine, a Mexican tile wet bar, and of course, a margarita machine for all of the agency's clients to enjoy when visiting. Ask for the nickel tour next time you can stop by. A bottle of soda is included...unless it's happy hour at Papa Libre's.
