

Freed Nails down Church Services and Spark Energy

Freed Advertising Chosen as Agency of Record for Two Houston Area Businesses

SUGAR LAND, TX, (February 4, 2008) — Freed Advertising is happy to announce that it has added two new clients to its roster and is planning full steam ahead for the New Year. These client additions include Church Services and Spark Energy. Church Services, a Houston based company that provides residential and commercial services such as Plumbing, Heating & Air Conditioning and Spark Energy, a certified retail energy supplier which operates in multiple states including Texas, Massachusetts and New York.

"I am ecstatic about the opportunity to work with Church Services! Freed has a lot to bring to the table, and I anticipate a large, positive growth in their business in the near future," said Megan Pierce, Account Executive.

"Earning the confidence of these clients is paramount to us at Freed. We appreciate them allowing us the opportunity to enhance their brands," said Gerald Freed, agency CEO.

Freed team members look forward to continuing the work to further these brands in the marketplace in the coming years. The agency will provide creative, strategic and media services for both accounts.
