

Albrecht Appointed Positions at Several Organizations

Freed President Elected to Ad Industry and University Posts

SUGAR LAND, TX, (June 12, 2008) — Michael Albrecht, president of Freed Advertising, has recently been elected to the post of Chairman of the American Advertising Federation-Houston's Presidents Council. The Presidents Council is comprised of past presidents from AAF-Houston, which was founded in 1911 and is Houston's oldest service organization. Albrecht served the ad club as president in 2001-02. As Chair of the Presidents Council, he will also serve on the board of directors for AAF-Houston.

Albrecht has also been appointed to the board of directors for the Advertising Education Foundation of Houston (AEFH). AEFH raises funds for college scholarships to promote local advertising talent, ultimately contributing to the local ad industry. The scholarships are awarded annually to college students studying in the field of advertising and communications and likely to remain in Houston upon graduation.

In addition, Albrecht has recently accepted a position on the board of the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) at Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas. CTE is a program designed to strengthen the academic experience of its faculty and students by providing support for teaching and learning at Texas A&M University.

Freed Advertising, L.P.

Freed Advertising is a Sugar Land, Texas-based advertising agency with clients in the real estate, automotive, home products, banking, entertainment and other retail and business-to-business industries. The agency, one of Houston's top ten, has won numerous awards in its 24-year history including national recognition for a 2005 Super Bowl spot for client, Silestone. For more information, visit the Freed Advertising website at www.freedadvertising.com.